NOTES FROM A CITY EDITOR'S DAYBOOK—The LaSalle News-Tribune reports that a petition condemning the suspension of Capt. Henry Engstrom, commander of the Sterling and Rock Island police districts, is circulating in Bureau county.

Engstrom was set down Nov. 4 by Police Supt. Phil M. Brown for "insubordination and disrespect to a commanding officer."

The petition, which the News-Tribune has gained the signatures of prominent area residents, expresses the feeling that the gambling raids by state police in Bureau county were responsible for Engstrom's suspension.

The petition sets forth that the state police raids "embarrassed local law enforcement officials," and that Engstrom's protest against those complaints registered by those officials caused embarrassment to both state and local police.

Further, the petition says, "Much of the evidence he had secured never reached court or was used only to secure minor convictions. Engstrom sought to see that prosecution was adequate and was again reprimanded."

Finally, the petition alleges, a tape recording Engstrom and the county sheriff secured indicated an "active cooperation between the gambling interests and local and state officials."

Supt. Brown has denied that the gambling raids had anything to do with it and commended Engstrom for doing a "wonderful" job in the Bureau county gambling cleanup.

A BUSINESS NOTE: Dixon's new First Federal Savings and Loan Association expects to be in business about Jan. 1, it was learned today. The organization has been granted a charter from the Federal Home Loan Board, Washington, D. C.

An organization meeting of subscribers will be held Nov. 23 to formally accept the charter, adopt by-laws and to elect directors. Proxy blanks have gone in the mails to all subscribers.

The new savings and loan firm will open headquarters in the Alden Hunter realty office on River Street on a temporary basis, it was learned.

The Dixon park board will meet at 7 p. m. tonight in the Dixon National Bank building to consider a proposed $35,000 bond issue for building eight new tennis courts in the city.

If approved, the project would have to be approved, passed by a referendum, according to Atty. John Dixon.

More than 500 persons reportedly have signed a petition in favor of such a project. The petition will be presented to the park board tonight.

There are two sets of tennis courts in the city at the present time. They are located across from the high school and near St. Patrick's Catholic church.

Don't forget "A Night of Harmony" at 8 p. m. tonight in the Dixon high school auditorium.

The show will be the 10th annual presentation by the Dixon chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America.

Featured will be The Four Tones, The Cardinals, The Nord Kings and The Heart of Illinois Four. Also featured will be the combined choruses of the Dixon, Sterling and Rock Falls chapters.

All seats are reserved. C.J.C.

Plan Economic Classes Here

Breakfast Round-Tables Scheduled for 17 Weeks

The first of 17 weekly classes on economic intelligence will start Dec. 1 with a 7 a. m. breakfast in the Nachusa House.

Nearly two dozen Dixon Chamber of Commerce members registered for the course following an organizational luncheon Thursday.

Registration is still open to Chamber of Commerce members who missed the luncheon and want to attend the series of classes, according to Ralph Richie, executive manager of the local Chamber.

A $10 fee is charged for the course, Richie said. The weekly classes will be in the form of breakfast meetings. The cost of the breakfasts will be on a pay-as-you-attend basis, he added.

The series of classes is sponsored by the Industrial Council of the Dixon Chamber of Commerce.

A Round-Table
The text for the course is in the form of 17 pamphlets. The classes will take the form of round-table discussions.

These pamphlets were prepared by the economic research department of the United States Chamber of Commerce under the direction of Dr. Emerson F. Schmidt. Associate economists collaborating in the project included Drs. R. Buford Brandis, W. Glenn Campbell and Thomas F. Johnson.

Robert Sweeney, a representative of the national organization, was here Wednesday to help organize the classes.

The entire course goes under the heading, "The American Competitive Enterprise Economy."

The titles of the pamphlets, in the order of study, are: "The Mystery of Money," "Control of the

'Sisters,' Shorn of Curly Locks, Found to Be Boys

KENOSHA, Wis. (U)—Two young brothers—shorn of their waist-length blond, curly hair and divested of girls' clothing for possibly the first time in their lives—faced life today as boys.

Puzzled welfare officials, meanwhile, investigated to determine why the parents of the two boys, 15 and 11, were apparently raising them as girls.

The parents, unnamed by authorities until the investigation is completed, said they saw nothing wrong in having their boys wear curls and not attending school. The father said he was from the South and reported his wife was from downstate Illinois.

Face Baring
Miss Janet Thelem, Kenosha County juvenile probation officer heading the investigation, said the parents will face a Juvenile Court hearing. No other charges were filed, she said.

The situation came to light Wednesday when a local hotel notified authorities that it had found the boys and their mother huddled in the same bed in a darkened, unheated room. The hotel management said they had been living in the room about a month and seldom left it. One of the boys occasionally went out for bakery goods.

The boys—wearing girls' clothing when found in the room—were taken to a hospital for examination for signs of malnutrition. Their mother was in a hospital room at Kenosha County Jail.

A Tradition
The father told police long hair was a tradition in his family and said his hair was not cut until he was 18. He reported he was employed by a drivers' school in Chicago, about 55 miles south of Kenosha.

IAA Urges Widened Range of Flexible Farm Price Supports

Object: To Prevent Big Crop Surplus

Largest State Farm Group Ends Session; Rename Otto Steffey

CHICAGO (U)—The Illinois Agricultural Assn. has gone on record for widening the range of flexible price supports.

The present range of federal props under the price of basic crops is 75 to 90 per cent of parity. Before concluding their 41st annual meeting Thursday, Illinois Farm Bureau delegates urged widening this to 60-90 per cent.

The resolution conflicts with proposals by many Democratic party leaders for a return to flat 90 per cent of parity supports.

The Illinois group, representing 202,000 farm families, is the largest state Farm Bureau in the country. There were 541 official delegates at the four-day meeting.

Would Prevent Pileup
Speakers said the wider range would help prevent a pileup of more farm surpluses. They called it a suggestion for dealing with the farm problem "during the transition period" toward an objective of "full parity, opportunity and income for farm people."

"Farm commodity prices cannot be successfully supported over long periods at a level above that established by the normal functioning of supply and demand," the IAA said.

The IAA reaffirmed a stand taken a year ago "to shift emphasis from government price supports and acreage controls on individual commodities to the establishment of a soil fertility approach."

The group recommended price support levels on basic farm commodities to provide what it called "realistic price supports which will permit the entire current production and a portion of accumulated surpluses to move into consumption." In the case of corn, this would mean that acreage allotments could be immediately suspended.

Other Resolutions
Other resolutions urged:
1. Removal of the federal excise tax on gasoline for non-highway use.

2. Development of expanded markets for farm products.

3. Review of the state relief laws to find deficiencies.

4. Enactment of state speed law.

5. That the Legislature appropriate money for a new home economics building at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.

6. That the Legislature decide whether there should be more toll roads and if so decide their terms.

This resolution said the IAA "doubts the advisability of wide use of toll roads in Illinois."

The IAA reelected Otto Steffey of Stronghurst president. The new board of directors is Milo Miller of Pekin, Merle Jeffers of Catlin and George Bauer of Smithboro.

Charles J. Elliott of Streator was elected vice president. Lloyd Wallace of Waterman was named to fill the director's post vacated by Elliott.

Strain on Credit
The two moves followed an ebullient upswing since the first of this month in business activity. The spurt created sudden new demands for credit on a large scale, and put a strain on production.

Most Restrictive
That is the most restrictive lending cost enforced by the board in 20 years, since the first half of 1935. Since then, until late this year, the reserve bank lending rate had never topped 2 per cent.

The new discount rate was authorized for the reserve banks at New York, Philadelphia, Atlanta, Chicago, Cleveland and San Francisco. A similar increase for the nation's six other reserve banks is expected on the basis of previous experience.

As a second step to curb credit, the reserve board disclosed that it returned this week to sales on the open market of federal securities owned by the reserve system. Funds used to buy these securities thus become unavailable for lending.

Spent in Upward-Moving Commodity Prices
It was learned that the continued tendency of basic prices such as those for metals to move up, while farm prices continued to drift downward, and a new upward trend to stock market prices were key factors in federal reserve thinking which led to the new crackdown.

The hike in reserve bank discount rates was the fourth since April, when the 12 banks were lending at 1½ per cent.

Upward movement of the discount rate is a favorite technique of the reserve system for hitting at possible inflationary developments. It makes borrowing from the federal reserve system more costly for the member banks which, in turn, increase the rate of interest they charge their clients.

NEW YORK (U)—The stock market took the latest rise in the discount rate in its stride today with only a moderate decline.

Prices were down around two points at the most while gains with a few exceptions were fractional.

Trading came to the neighborhood of 2½ million shares, compared 2,310,000 Thursday.

General Electric was up a major fraction as directors raised the dividend payment to 50 cents.

Federal Reserve Board Cracks Down on Credit

Takes Two Steps Toward Halting Credit Expansion

WASHINGTON (U)—The Federal Reserve Board has ended its recent pampering of the business boom with a double crackdown on resurgent credit expansion.

Effective today, the reserve board permitted six reserve banks to shove the discount rate—the interest cost at which they lend to their member commercial banks—up from 2¼ to 2½ per cent.

Most Restrictive
That is the most restrictive lending cost enforced by the board in 20 years, since the first half of 1935. Since then, until late this year, the reserve bank lending rate had never topped 2 per cent.

Chartered Airliner Loaded With GIs on Holiday Furloughs

14 Missing

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (U)—Clouds shrouding a snowy mountain peak hampered air and ground parties struggling today to reach an Air force transport plane which crashed while en route to the Nevada atomic bombing range Thursday.

The Air Force said there was little chance any survived the crash. Names of passengers, which included both military and civilian personnel, were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

Wreckage was sighted at about the 9,000-foot level on Charleston Peak.

SEATTLE (U)—A chartered airliner loaded with GIs homeward bound for the holidays crashed shortly after takeoff today and at least 27 persons died as it exploded and burned.

Forty-seven others, including the three-man crew survived the crash.

The four-engined DC4, a non-scheduled airliner chartered to the Army by the Peninsular Air Transport Co. of Miami Springs, Fla., carried 66 servicemen who came home from the Far East Thursday.

They were bound for separation points in the East and for a reunion with their families at Thanksgiving.

Also aboard, in addition to the crew, were a woman and three children, and a reserve pilot.

Second in 24 Hours
The crash was the second in the West in less than 24 hours. Fourteen were aboard a C54 which crashed in Nevada Thursday.

Today's crash came brief minutes after the plane left Boeing Field on a flight to Chicago, its first scheduled stop. The ship plowed into a hillside in a residential district, broke into pieces and burst into flames. A huge chunk hit the rear of a house.

COMPANY SUSPENDED
WASHINGTON (U)—The Civil Aeronautics Administration said today that in August it temporarily suspended operations of Peninsular Air Transport Co. on 37 complaints involving such things as overloading planes and working pilots excessively long hours.

One of Peninsular's planes crashed at Seattle today with a load of GIs homeward bound from the Far East.

The spokesman added that the CAA lifted the suspension after two weeks because an investigation indicated Peninsular was "able and willing to conduct proper operations."

where a mother and her five children were sleeping. They escaped uninjured.

Eugene Casey, 19, of Chicago, one of the survivors, said he was seated on the left side of the plane near the emergency door when it hit.

Delayed by Storm
Casey in a hospital suffered shock and severe burns, said the takeoff had been delayed by a snowstorm which had covered the Seattle area during the day.

Accused Plane Saboteur Now Denies Bomb Charge

DENVER (U)—John Gilbert Graham flatly denies planting a bomb on the airliner that crashed and killed his mother and 43 other passengers, the Rocky Mountain News said today.

Federal authorities announced Monday that Graham, 23, had signed a "written admission" but the newspaper in a copyrighted interview quoted Graham as saying: "Yes, I signed a statement. But it's not true. They told me they were going to put my wife in jail, and I'd better get it straightened out myself."

Asked by reporter Al Nakula if he meant FBI agents had used duress—kept questioning him until he confessed—Graham answered: "Well, they started about noon that Sunday and didn't stop until I signed a confession about 4 a. m. the next morning. Oh, they took me out for dinner once and gave me drinks of water and such . . ."

Graham appeared briefly in court yesterday but his arraignment was postponed until Nov. 28 to allow the defendant to retain counsel. He is charged with murder in the death of his mother, Mrs. Daise King, 54.

She was among passengers of a United Air Lines DC8B that crashed Nov. 1 near Longmont, Colo., killing all aboard.

In the Rocky Mountain News interview Graham was asked if he put either a present or a bundle of dynamite in his mother's luggage.

"I didn't put anything in her luggage," Graham replied. "I only bought some straps to put around the luggage. The hinges on the suitcase were breaking. I don't want to discuss the present."

FIVE DAY FORECAST: Illinois—Temperatures will average near normal. Normal maximum 45 north to 54 south; slowly rising temperatures through weekend with change to colder Tuesday or Wednesday. Precipitation ¼ to ½ inch, occurring Saturday and again about Monday or Tuesday.

Attend the Church of Your Faith Regularly

As every parent knows, learning to say "thank you" is one of the elementary lessons in a child's home education. It is page one in the book of good manners.

It is also one of the first lessons in a person's religious education. And here it is something more than mere good manners.

In every age man's spiritual insight can be measured by his readiness to recognize God as the source of strength and blessings, and by his eagerness to express his gratitude to the Almighty. No one has ever doubted the religious sincerity of our Pilgrim fathers: they gave us Thanksgiving Day.

Today, in a world hungry for spiritual leadership, how much depends on our faith in God . . . and our ability to turn to Him in gratitude and prayer!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Irving Perala, Miss Lincoln Wed in Dixon

Residing at 402 North Galena av., Dixon, are newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Irving B. Perala. Mrs. Perala is the former Geraldine Lincoln, youngest daughter of the Floyd Lincolns, Rt. 3, Dixon, and the bridegroom is a son of Irving S. Perala, Negaunee, Mich.

Palms, white gladioli and candelabra were used in decorating the First Methodist church, Dixon, for the Oct. 23, afternoon wedding. Rev. Sidney Bloomquist performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. J. H. Hughes, Amboy, was nuptial organist, and James Patterson, Dixon, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of Chantilly lace and gossamer nylon tulle. A long-sleeved, lace bolero with Johnny collar, fastened down the front, covered a strapless bodice of lace over satin. The bouffant skirt, graced with tier upon tier of shirred nylon tulle ruffles, extended to a full, waltz length.

Bible Is Gift

A sculptured tiara of seed pearls, sequins and rhinestones held the bride's ballerina length, triple tiered veil of imported silk illusion. Her only jewelry was a pair of rhinestone and pearl earrings. Stephanotis and white carnations topped the small white Bible carried by the bride, this being a gift from the bridegroom. She also carried a white lace handkerchief and wore the diamond engagement ring of the bridegroom's late mother.

Miss Bernice Gerdes, Dixon, as the bride's attendant was gowned in Dior blue lace and nylon tulle. The lace, strapless bodice was accented with a tulle pleat drape and the double nylon tulle skirt was of a waltz length. She wore a lace shrug jacket that had cap sleeves, and a mandarin collar. Her head-dress was a horsehair braid scalloped clip cap of the Dior blue. Her cascade bouquet was of pink carnations and she wore pearl and rhinestone earrings, a gift from the bride.

Robert Perala, Negaunee, served his brother as best man and Bill Lincoln, Dixon, brother of the bride, and Bernard Gerdes, Dixon, ushered.

Child Attendants

As flower girl for her aunt, Brenda Quaco, Dixon, wore a frock of blue and white print nylon styled with a taffeta, and lace Peter Pan collar and a matching taffeta sash. Daisies, and mums, of multi-colors, were in the basket she carried. Stanley Quaco, Dixon, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. A small white, satin, lace trimmed, pillow held the rings.

With her white colored dress, the bride's mother wore black accessories and a pink rose corsage. The bridegroom's sister, Miss Martha Perala of Michigan, wore black accessories and a white carnation corsage with her blue linen suit.

Guests at the wedding were registered by Miss Bernadine Gerdes, Mrs. Donald Quaco, Mrs. Donald Powell and Mrs. Charles Hanson, Dixon, also Mrs. Bill Tabor, Sterling, sisters of the bride, were in charge of the gifts.

Church Reception

A reception was held in the church parlors with Mrs. Robert Simpson, Erie, presiding at the coffee service; Mrs. Herbert Gerdes, Walnut, cutting the four tiered cake and Mrs. Bernard Gerdes, Dixon, serving the punch.

When the newlyweds departed for a honeymoon to the Smokey Mountains, the bride donned a light brown suit with avocado and white accessories and a corsage of bronze baby mums.

A 1951 graduate of Dixon high school, the bride is presently employed by the Northern Illinois Gas company. "Irv," a graduate of Michigan College of Mining and Technology, is employed by the Public Service Co. He was in service three years.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were from Michigan, Iowa and Wisconsin. Erie, Walnut, Amboy, Sterling, Harmon and Peoria, Ill.

Dixon Drunk Driver Gets 90-Day Term

County Judge Grover Gehant today sentenced Leo Marshall, Dixon, to 90 days in the Vandalla prison farm for driving while intoxicated. It was his second offense.

Marshall admitted he had been on a "drinking spree" prior to his arrest and was unable to remember being involved in an auto accident.

Dixon Police Officers John Woodruff and Ed Trotter arrested Marshall Nov. 12 following a mishap at the intersection of Third Street and Peoria Avenue.

He collided with a parked car owned by Thelton Meyers, Dixon, while driving a truck owned by Murray Wendling, Dixon contractor. According to Woodruff, who testified at today's hearing, Marshall "passed out" after the crash and had to be carried to the police car.

He is the father of nine children, two of whom still are at home. He has a lengthy police record because of drinking.

He was convicted of driving while intoxicated in 1942. A jail sentence is mandatory on the second or subsequent offense.

Judge Gehant also ordered Marshall to stand committed until nearly $40 in court costs were satisfied.

said, the "whole plane started jarring. I saw wires snap.

"I don't know how I got out. I walked right through the fire."

Part of the plane came to rest in the yard of Mrs. Donald Renard. Mrs. Renard said there was a "terrific explosion," and "the next minute my yard was full of soldiers."

Every available ambulance was sent to the scene and the injured were rushed to three hospitals.

Hours after the crash, the coroner's office still was trying to complete identification of the dead.

The soldiers were among the 2,833 who arrived on the transport Gen. R. L. Howze from the Far East.

Chartered by U. S.

They were loaded aboard non-scheduled airlines planes operated by commercial airlines which are not certificated by the Civil Aeronautics Board for scheduled flight—chartered by the government for speedy return to their homes.

Twenty-two such transports took off from Boeing field at intervals in Thursday and Thursday night, carrying 1,000 of the servicemen.

There were few witnesses to the takeoff and crash.

Herbert Gardiner, a Boeing airplane Co. employee, told of hearing the plane pass over. He said one of the engines sounded "flat," and no exhaust was visible from another engine.

Gardiner said the plane seemed to be about 150 feet off the ground— "much too low, considering the distance it had traveled from the field."

Fire Chief Gail Keyser said the fire was apparently started by sparks from a nearby incinerator fire. He estimated between 50 and 60 logs were destroyed.

The alarm was turned in at 3:25 p.m. It took firemen nearly 45 minutes to extinguish the blaze.

Writer Says Bomb Secret Told in Talk

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times said today that Atomic Energy Commissioner Thomas E. Murray, who urged in a speech Thursday night a "show of force" H-bomb explosion, has revealed one of the major secrets in making the bomb.

In a story by-lined by William L. Laurence, the Times said Murray "made it clear that the so-called hydrogen fusion bomb is actually a very large fission bomb."

The newspaper added:

"This marked the first time that anyone with intimate knowledge of the secrets of the hydrogen bomb has revealed one of its major secrets, the principal source from which the... weapon draws its explosive power."

The story said Murray disclosed that uranium 238—plentiful and cheap, but normally considered nonfissionable—now can be used in the H-bomb "in its natural form."

Prior to this development, the newspaper said, U-238 "had to be converted at great expense into the man-made element plutonium."

Simply stated, fusion is defined as "a melting together. The act or operation of a solid passing into its liquid phase."

Fission is defined as "a clearing, splitting or breaking up into parts."

500 Driven to Street by Fire

CHICAGO (AP)—Some 500 persons were driven to the street in below-freezing weather early today after a fire in a tavern spread to a South Side hotel. No one was injured.

Dense smoke poured from the Douglas Hotel at 26th and State streets and flames spread up walls between the two sections of the six-story brick building.

Fire officials said most of the estimated $15,000 damage was from smoke and water. Cause of the blaze was not determined.

Grand Jury Calls Truman's Friend

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A close friend of former President Harry S. Truman was scheduled to appear today before a federal grand jury here which has been investigating the handling of income tax cases by the Internal Revenue Service under the Truman administration.

The issuance of a subpoena for Tom L. Evans, a Kansas City radio executive and secretary of the Harry S. Truman Library, Inc., came as a surprise.

Also scheduled to appear before the grand jury today was Matthew J. Connelly of New York, who was appointed secretary for Truman when he was president.

India Roars Greeting to Russian Communist Chiefs

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin and a Russian Communist party chief Nikita S. Khrushchev arrived in New Delhi today to begin an 18-day goodwill tour in India.

The two top Russian leaders were greeted by Prime Minister Nehru and other high Indian officials at New Delhi's military airport, where thousands of persons had been assembling since early morning.

Greeted By Roar

Bulganin, waving a straw hat, was the first off the plane. He was greeted by a roar from the waiting crowds. Khrushchev, followed by Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, then emerged from the craft while Nehru moved forward to shake hands with his visitors.

Bulganin and Khrushchev mounted a rostrum to take a salute. A 100-man military honor guard played the national anthems of India and the Soviet Union.

The Indian capital was decorated lavishly for the welcome to the Russians, whose visit was set up five months ago when Nehru toured Russia as a guest of the Soviet government.

Appeals from Nehru for discipline among the crowds were given wide publicity. Nehru warned that disorders during the Soviet visit would be a blot on Indian honor.

Special trains brought thousands to the capital and veteran residents predicted the welcome would rival any here since Britain's late King George V held a royal durbar—a reception of Indian princes—in 1911.

All government offices were closed and many private businesses shut their shops to permit their employees to join in the celebration.

The tour of the Soviet leaders is certain to have significant political effect on this country and

Settle Rose Bowl Problem on Saturday

Wolverines Host OSU And Cassidy

UCLA Meets USC For Pacific Coast Rose Bowl Berth

By The Associated Press

There'll be a bargain counter-full of old school ties resting on old grand paunches at a flock of traditional battles in college football this weekend, but for all practical purposes there are just two games on the schedule—Ohio State at Michigan and Southern Cal. vs. UCLA.

The Rose Bowl lineup rides on the results. Michigan can cop the Big Ten title and the Jan. 2 berth with a victory. UCLA can win the Pacific Coast Conference crown and the other half of the Pasadena pass by defeating the Trojans.

Ohio State has "only" the Big Ten at stake. The Buckeyes can't go to the Rose Bowl because they went last year. But by knocking off or tying sixth-ranked Michigan, they could hand the bowl berth to third-ranked Michigan State, which wraps up the regular season against nonleague Marquette in perhaps the worst mis-match of the year.

So-So Season

Southern Cal has nothing at stake except a chance to brighten a so-so season. An upset of fifth-ranked UCLA, however, might open the Rose Bowl door for Oregon State, which plays Oregon.

Michigan, playing before a home crowd of 97,239, is favored by a touchdown, and maybe more.

OSU's All America backfield ace Howard (Hopalong) Cassidy, was in a minor car accident Thursday and he'll be carrying a stiff neck. UCLA is favored by nine points, although whiz Ronnie Knox is on the injured list. It's the national TV Game of the Week (NBC) and 100,000 plus will be in the stands for what shapes up as a running battle between UCLA's Sam Brown and Bob Davenport and Southern Cal's Jon Arnett. It may be played in the rain.

The weekend gets rolling tonight when winless Alabama visits Miami (Fla.). The Hurricanes, mentioned as a possible new addition to the Southeastern Conference, shouldn't have any trouble at all with Bama, a cellar member of the SEC.

Favored by Three

In addition to the two big ones Saturday, Oklahoma, the nation's No. 1 team, takes on Nebraska for the Big Seven title. The Sooners, with 27 straight victories, are favored by three touchdowns.

The nation's only other major unbeaten, second-ranked Maryland, wraps up the season against George Washington. The Terps, headed for an Orange Bowl showdown with Oklahoma, are favored by four TDs.

In the Southwest, Texas Christian and Jim Swink can sew up the Cotton Bowl berth against Rice. TCU, No. 7 nationally, gets the nod by two touchdowns.

Need Third Upset

Mississippi and Georgia Tech, top bowl prospects from the Southeastern Conference, are idle—but Auburn and Tennessee keep the fires burning. Auburn has a touchdown edge on Clemson, which may have lost its fight against Maryland last week. Tennessee is a TD underdog against Kentucky.

Pitt, which gained bowl attention by topping unbeaten West Virginia last week, could clinch a reported Gator Bowl bid against Penn State. The Panthers are favored by six.

In the Midwest, fourth-ranked Notre Dame goes against Iowa in a game that's been a sizzler in recent years. The Irish are favored by 10.

In the East, Princeton can win the Ivy crown by whipping Dartmouth (the Tigers are favored by 12) while Harvard needs a third straight upset of Yale for the Big Three title. Yale's favored by two TDs.

Rate MSU, Irish

CHICAGO (AP)—Michigan State is favored in the Big Ten and Notre Dame in the Central Collegiate as both conferences today hold their annual cross country championship meet over the four-mile course at Chicago's Washington Park.

Michigan, defending champion, canceled its cross country schedule this fall and will not be represented by a full squad.

Iowa and Illinois are regarded leading contenders with Indiana rated an outside chance.

Notre Dame dominates the Central field with Marquette, Western Michigan, Drake and Wheaton battling for second place.

PUTTING A HEAD ON IT

Highly Prized Quarterback Wins Berth After 5 Years

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—After 40 games and five years, Lynn Beightol may be starting his second game at quarterback Saturday for Maryland's undefeated football team against George Washington.

Two ingrown hairs on the neck of first string quarterback Frank Tamburello set up an infection in Tamburello's neck last week to give Beightol his first crack at starting against Clemson. It also kept Tamburello in the hospital most of this week.

If it weren't for that, Beightol would have the dubious distinction of being the most publicized football player to enter Maryland in the last decade and never start a game.

About a dozen colleges, including Notre Dame sought him after he starred at Fort Hill High in Cumberland, Md. He made the Maryland varsity as a freshman in 1951, scored in the first game and went on to play in every game that season.

With All-America candidate Jack Scarbath—he made it—and highly capable Bernie Faloney behind him at quarterback in 1952, Beightol laid off football that season.

Walnut Has Tough Slate

WALNUT—(Special)—Five lettermen, two of them regulars last year, return to bolster the hopes of Coach Chuck Vail that the Walnut Blue Raiders can successfully defend the South Blackhawk championship it shared with Elmwood last season.

The Raiders, who wound up the season with a 15-11 season record, did most of their winning in conference play where they captured 10 decisions while losing only four.

Heading the list of veterans-back this season are Doug Eltheridge, captain-elect, and Ned Waterhouse, Eltheridge, a 6-2 senior, is the center while Waterhouse, a 6-3 junior, is a forward.

Backing this duo are veterans Gail Carlson, a 5-7 senior guard, Bill Edson, a 5-9 senior guard, and Ron Burkley, a 5-10 junior guard.

"We have the most difficult schedule this year that Walnut has ever played," Vail reports, but he adds that "I feel that we'll be able to hold our own with the ball clubs in the conference."

"I believe that Elmwood, Galva and Wethersfield are the favorites, however. We definitely are a dark horse as we lost three regulars from our last year's squad and our two leading scorers, Joe Hassler and Dennis Snider. Also gone are Ross Althouse and Roy Lathrop."

Vail figures his team "will have fair height and better than average balance with better depth than usual."

Among the leading candidates

Illinois Joins Battle for Fourth Spot

Play Northwestern In Annual Tussle; Iowa Faces Irish

CHICAGO (AP)—The Big Ten football campaign roars down to the finale Saturday with the title and Rose Bowl trip still at stake.

The blue-chip windup sends Ohio State, unbeaten in conference play, to Michigan, where a crowd of 97,239 will watch the Wolverines try to stop the Buckeyes' great game-breaker, Howie (Hopalong) Cassidy.

Michigan, playing seven league games to Ohio State's six, can take the crown and become the first Big Ten team to make three Pasadena trips since the series was inaugurated in 1947 by defeating the Buckeyes.

A victory would give the Wolverines a 6-1 conference count for the season while defending champion Ohio State, ineligible to return to the Rose Bowl after appearing there last January, would wind up with 5-1 to share second place with Michigan State.

Could Fall To Third

A Buckeye victory, or a deadlock, would assure Michigan State of the Rose Bowl date. Michigan would finish third.

Michigan has won 7 of the last 10 games with the Buckeyes and played to a 7-7 tie in 1949. The dope sheets favor the Wolverines by a touchdown this time.

The windup finds a three-way battle for fourth place among Purdue (3-2-1), Illinois (3-3) and Wisconsin (3-3).

Purdue will take that spot, regardless of what the others do, by beating Indiana (1-4) in the traditional Old Oaken Bucket scrap at Bloomington, (Ind.) The Boiler-makers rate a two-touchdown edge.

Illini Favored

To stay in the running for fourth, Illinois must defeat Northwestern and Wisconsin do the same with the Gophers at Minnesota.

The Illini are heavily favored in their Northwestern invasion. If the Wildcats lose, it will be the first season in their history without a victory. They have dropped all eight of their starts.

Wisconsin is a seven-point choice over the Gophers who have a 1-5 conference mark and were blasted 42-14 by Michigan State last week.

Michigan State will have a chance to wipe the bench clean in the Spartans' home engagement with Marquette.

Winding up the Midwest features is Iowa's test at Notre Dame. The once-beaten Irish (21-7 to Michigan State) enter their home finale after two easy triumphs over Penn and North Carolina. After Iowa, they wind up against Southern California at Los Angeles.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Marty Marion, manager of the Chicago White Sox during their bid for the American League pennant last season, Thursday night received the fifth annual St. Louis Elks Club award as "St. Louis' outstanding sports figure of 1955."

Marion, in accepting the trophy said: "I want to extend my thanks to the 25 guys on my team who had everything to do with my getting this honor tonight."

Mack Unable To Attend Own Birthday Party

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—As they have done for so many years, old-timers and admiring younger fellows gave a pre-birthday party for Connie Mack Wednesday night, but Mack himself couldn't be there.

On Oct. 1 he fell from his bed and fractured his right hip. In the hospital he fell from bed a second time. Later in October he underwent surgery, and in what seemed like no time at all he was back home and reported to be fit indeed for a man who will turn 93 Dec. 22.

Wednesday night was supposed to be his first venture out since the start of his convalescence at home. His appearance at the Reciprocity Club's annual party in the Warwick Hotel was eagerly awaited.

At least 150 persons—club members, civic leaders, baseball fans and baseball giants of yore—waited for more than two hours in the hope that Connie eventually would show up.

Although no formal explanation was given why Connie didn't make it, word was passed around that his family and physician felt it inadvisable for him to make the considerable effort.

At the dinner, baseball stars of other times spoke mistily of him as a friend and as a master baseball strategist who guided the Philadelphia Athletics to onetime dominance in baseball.

Phog Allen To Celebrate His 70th Birthday

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP)—Coach Phog Allen celebrates his 70th birthday—the mandatory retirement age at the University of Kansas—today by introducing publicly a 7-foot basketball player.

Allen calls him "the greatest basketball player I've ever seen." He is Will (The Stilt) Chamberlain, who scored 2,252 points in three seasons at Overbrook High School in Philadelphia.

Chamberlain will make his debut as a Kansas player tonight in the freshman lineup of the annual varsity-freshman game.

Allen, dean of the nation's coaches, will be able to coach through this season under the university's retirement rules. Last year a resolution was introduced in the State Legislature to extend the retirement age in his case.

Mainly because of the presence of Chamberlain in the freshman lineup, tonight's game will attract between 7,500 and 10,000 paying customers. It probably will be the largest crowd ever to witness such an affair.

Steel Worker Has Surprise in Bout With Pastrano

NEW YORK (AP)—Joe Rowan, a full-time steel mill worker and a part-time fighter until last summer, thinks he has a surprise in store tonight for favored Willie Pastrano and the experts.

The 21-year-old Phoenixville, Pa. heavyweight is a 3-1 underdog in the 16-rounder at Madison Square Garden. Pastrano is the world's No. 3 light heavyweight. Rowan is unranked.

He hasn't been beaten in the last 13 months. His nonlosing string includes eight victories and one draw, the latter with wicked-punching Bob Satterfield. His over-all record is 26-6-1 with 23 knockouts.

Pastrano's record is 33-4 with 8 kayos.

Henert Paces Small Ashton Five

One Letterman at Ashton

ASHTON—(Special)—A 5-9 part time regular guard last year, Larry Henert, is all that is left from Ashton's sixth place Route 72 conference ball club.

Adding to the problems facing the Aces and Coach Ken Johnson is the lack of height on the club this season. Tallest men a pair of 6-0 juniors, Ron Page and Stan Reed, both up from the frosh-soph squad. Reed was a regular with the team while Page was a reserve.

Along with Henert, only two other players have any varsity experience, but neither had enough to letter. They are Joe Karr, 5-11 senior forward and Gene Kersten, 5-6 senior guard.

Johnson, now in his second year, hopes to find help from last season's frosh-soph squad. He'll be counting heavily on soph regulars Glenn Hansen, 5-10 guard, Dallas Huntley, 5-6 guard, Rae Kersten, 5-8 guard and Denny Ventler, 5-6 forward.

"We have a small squad, willing workers and pretty good condition," Johnson reported. But he can't see the Aces finishing higher than the second division in Route 72 conference play.

"Forreston should win the conference handsily with Stillman Valley, Monroe Center and Byron rounding out the first division," Johnson said. "The second division should be much tougher than last year, which will make it tough on us."

Last season, Ashton won nine and lost 14 during the season and captured the Polo tour team holiday tournament. Because of a ruling against District 271, the Aces will not be able to defend their title.

In conference play last season, the Aces won four games while losing 10.

Ashton opens its season at Lee Center, Nov. 22. It will play four games away before returning for its first home game, Dec. 10, against Stillman Valley. The first conference game will be at Wmnebago, Dec. 2.

The Aces will play a 10 game schedule and no tournaments. In addition to conference games, the Aces have contests with Polo and Oregon of the Blackhawk conference and with LaMoille of the Little Eight.

NCAA Rejects Statewide TV Of Iowa-Notre Dame Game

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa (AP)—A statewide telecast in Iowa of the Iowa-Notre Dame football game at South Bend, Ind., Saturday has been refused.

The National Collegiate Athletic Assn. Thursday rejected an appeal from Gov. Leo Hoegh of Iowa to permit multiple telecasting of the game.

It now appeared that only eastern Iowa viewers served by station WMT-TV will receive the contest. WMT-TV, designated as the home station for the University of Iowa, announced it would telecast the game as authorized by the NCAA.

The Cedar Rapids station has sought NCAA permission to feed the telecast to stations in Des Moines, Mason City and Sioux City in Iowa, and Rock Island, Ill. In a telegram to Gov. Hoegh, Walter Byers, NCAA executive director, said Thursday that an authorized release of the game in TV areas other than South Bend and Cedar Rapids "would constitute a breach of commitments and agreements we have made."

Allen calls him "the greatest basketball player I've ever seen." He is Will (The Stilt) Chamberlain, who scored 2,252 points in three seasons at Overbrook High School in Philadelphia.

Knox Will Clean
'Mother,' College
To Foot the Bill

GALESBURG, Ill. (AP)—Sheriff Max Jones of Knox County said Thursday that the statue of Mother Bickerdyke is going to be cleaned and that Monmouth College is going to foot the bill.

Mother Bickerdyke was a Galesburg woman who nursed Civil War wounded. Her statue got an unseemly coating of oil and soot by 21 enthusiastic Monmouth students who set it ablaze on the eve of the Monmouth-Knox College football game Oct. 13.

Knox College is in Galesburg, 15 miles west of Monmouth, home of Monmouth College.

Monmouth College officials promised to clean the statue, but Sheriff Jones said they were failing to keep their pledge. A public hassle ensued, but it appeared soothed Thursday following meetings between interested parties. The sheriff said professional cleaners will be hired to sandblast and water-proof the statue and that Monmouth College will pay the bill.

The 21 students who set the statue ablaze were fined $29.30 and costs each.

But despite the Monmouth antics, Knox won the football game, 20 to 0.

AEC Opposed to 'Show of Force' to Convince Reds

WASHINGTON (AP)—Four atomic energy commissioners were lined up solidly today against a colleague's plan for a dramatic H-bomb "show of force" to impress on world leaders the urgent need for peace.

The proposal, made by AEC Commissioner Thomas E. Murray in a New York speech Thursday night, also met some outright opposition in the Senate. But some senators said the idea was worth considering.

Murray's idea—outlined at the Golden Jubilee Dinner of the Fordham University Law School—was to call representatives of all the nations to what he termed a "meeting at the atomic summit." Such a meeting, he said, would be held at Eniwetok in the Pacific Proving Grounds used by the AEC.

There, he said, these leaders—particularly the Russians and Communist Chinese—should witness an H-bomb explosion in what he envisioned as a "show of force, a declaration of American power and a demonstration of the strategy of deterrence."

Shortly after Murray's speech was released, his four AEC colleagues issued a joint statement declaring that "commission tests in the Pacific have never been designed as a 'show of force' but are solely for the development of weapons necessary for defense of the free world."

They said the AEC several months ago formally rejected Murray's motion to invite foreign observers, including Communists, to nuclear tests in the Pacific.

Joining in this statement were Chairman Lewis L. Strauss, and Commissioners Willard F. Libby, John von Neumann and Harold S. Vane—all appointees of President Eisenhower. Earlier, government spokesmen said Murray's plan had not been adopted as an administration policy.

Truman Holdover

Murray, a holdover from the Truman administration, said he had no immediate comment on the statement of his colleagues.

In his speech, he said a demonstration such as he advocated would do much to "disabuse our enemies of any false estimates... of our superiority."

He questioned whether Red Chinese and Soviet leaders are familiar with "the disastrous effects of a United States thermonuclear explosion." Seeing for themselves the immense power of an American hydrogen weapon, he said, would "leave no doubt in their minds with regard to the meaning of disaster."

The Farm Program:
Farm Sentiment Swings
To Scheme of 'Soil Bank'

Some Program to Cut Production Necessary

By OVID A. MARTIN
Associated Press Farm Reporter

WASHINGTON (AP)—A ground swell is developing in farming areas for a federal program that would reduce the size of the nation's farm plant until markets are better able to use what agriculture is capable of producing.

Farmers now recognize that agriculture over-expanded to meet war and postwar needs and that big surpluses accumulated as a consequence.

Few farmers see hope of any substantial improvement in the farm economy until production can be brought closer into balance with markets.

Almost Unanimous

At recent hearings held by the Senate Agriculture Committee in major farming areas and in interviews elsewhere, farmers disagreed on price support levels and methods of carrying out price guarantees. But there was an almost unanimous endorsement of a land retirement program.

It appears to be a pretty good wager that the Senate committee will include such a program in new farm legislation it plans to write. Both Democratic and Republican members greeted the idea as a "new look" in farm programs.

The plan is being advanced as a "soil bank." Farmers would take a portion of their tillable land out of all production and put it to soil-building uses. That would store fertility for a future emergency or to meet needs of an expanding population.

How It Works

For taking land out of production, farmers would get a payment from the government. Most farmers agreed that this payment should be enough to pay the taxes on the idled land, pay the cost of seeding it to a soil building crop, and give the farmer a rental fee equal to from 5 to 7 per cent of its annual productive value.

Prime advocates of such a plan are President Howard Hill of the Iowa Farm Bureau Federation and President James Patton of the National Farmers Union.

Some farmers would have the program require every farmer to idle a uniform percentage of his tillable land. Others would make it voluntary.

In advancing the soil bank idea, farmers recognize that present crop control measures have not succeeded in holding down the volume of crop production. This year's farm output will be the largest of record although rigid controls were invoked on cotton, wheat, rice, peanuts and tobacco and less rigid controls on corn.

Remove Bottleneck to Full Salk Production

Polio Experts Say No Reason to Doubt Safety

By ALTON L. BAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Polio experts say the green light is on for full-scale production of safe, potent vaccine through removal of a troublesome bottleneck.

Simultaneously, they answered some doubts and questions raised by some health officers concerning the vaccine at a meeting of the American Public Health Assn.

In essence, experts said there is no reason to doubt the efficiency or safety of the Salk polio vaccine.

One spiked a rumor that Canadians stopped making vaccine because they kept finding live virus in the vaccine. Dr. R. D. DeFries of Toronto said the reason was they're building a bigger plant to carry on a much bigger vaccination program next year.

Others, including Dr. Jonas E. Salk, who developed the vaccine, cited evidence that the vaccine could protect very young infants, that vaccination had nothing to do with the outbreak of this year's epidemic in Massachusetts, that use of even a single shot had drastically reduced paralytic polio in the United States this year.

But a couple of health officers held to their reservations that some mutations of vaccine might have been the cause of spread of polio to other members of the family. Virus experts disagreed, or said the assumption was by no means proved.

A committee of experts appointed by the U.S. Public Health Service reported the cause of a troublesome bottleneck in vaccine production had been found and corrected. It lay in differences in ways manufacturers earlier in year strained or filtered "soups" of live virus.

This filtering is done before the viruses are exposed to a lethal bath of formaldehyde, to kill all the viruses used in the vaccine.

The purpose of filtering is to ensure that all viruses are separate, equally exposed to the chemical.

But the committee found evidence that sometimes the filtering was perhaps too coarse, or else done too far in advance. Sediments or clumps of viruses inside the clumps could not be exposed to the chemical and could survive the bath.

A change in filtering methods and timing, already put into effect, prevents this, the report said. It means manufacturers should consistently get batches of vaccine free of live virus, and not have to discard or rework batches when live particles are detected by safety tests. This is the key to increased production.

Violent Storms Slowing Down

Blame Wind, Snow, Cold Weather for 13 Deaths

By The Associated Press
Snow and rain fell in western states today, but violent storms which lashed broad areas of the nation this week appeared diminishing.

The windy, snowy, cold weather was blamed for at least 13 deaths. Nine persons were missing and presumed dead. Four other persons were reported snowbound in the mountains over Boulder, Colo., which was hit by an 18-inch snowfall Monday.

The arctic air which has gripped the northern Rockies and northern Plains States for several days appeared nearly broken. The Weather Bureau reported only a few areas reporting below zero temperatures.

Readings Up

Temperatures in the icy belt climbed as much as 20 degrees compared to Thursday morning. However, readings through the area as far south as southern Colorado were in the 20s or lower.

But it was colder in the south, with temperatures in the 30s as far as the central Gulf States. Readings were 20 to 30 degrees lower in the southeast.

The coldest November weather in Montana's history, with temperatures more than 30 degrees below in some areas, also was felt in Wyoming and Colorado.

Snow Hit

Heavy snow hit the western slopes of the Rockies Thursday. A storm from Alaska struck the Pacific Coast, bringing rain into northern California and snow as far east as Idaho.

Snowfalls ranged from 2 to 6 inches in the Pacific northwest. Traffic was snarled in many cases. The snow in the western mountainous regions ranged up to 15 to 20 inches.

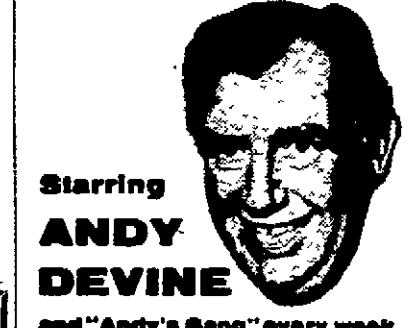

Snow flurries continued over the Great Lakes region and eastward into New England. Heaviest snow depths were 8 to 12 inches near Lake Superior and up to 17 inches at International Falls, Minn., on the Canadian border. In the Adirondacks about 10 inches of snow was reported in the Saranac-Lake Placid area.

In the south, light rain and drizzle was reported over Southern Texas.

Two Deaths

Two deaths were blamed on the storm in the Pacific Northwest. A boy in Portland, Ore., slipped from the snow into a creek and drowned.

ed. The second death was in a traffic accident in Bremerton, Wash. Earlier, a five-year-old Idaho girl fell through the ice on the Blackfoot River and was believed drowned.

In Ogden, Utah, a girl, with her coat over her head as protection from the blustery weather, was killed when struck by a car while crossing a street.

A 12-year-old boy in Spooner, Wis., suffocated in a six-foot snowdrift.

Two men froze to death in Indiana. New York reported three persons lost their lives in causes attributed to the stormy weather.

Hunters Drown
Four deer hunters were believed drowned after their 14-foot motor boat capsized in a frigid lake high in Michigan's Keweenaw Peninsula jutting into Lake Superior.

Two duck hunters perished in the freezing mud of a wind-swept marsh on Lake Erie off extreme southeastern Michigan.

Michigan state police listed as presumed dead two other Lake Erie duck hunters. Their boat disappeared off Sugar Island, near Erie, Mich.

Two deer hunters have been missing since Tuesday in Iron County, Mich. In other Michigan storm deaths, two Detroit construction workers were killed during a severe windstorm.

Argentine Labor Leaders Call Off General Strike

By ROMAN JIMENEZ

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Argentina's five-day-old government, apparently victorious in the first major challenge to its authority, announced Thursday night Peronista labor leaders had called off their faltering general strike.

The announcement came after old-line Peronista leaders of the General Confederation of Labor (CGT), deposed by the government when they issued their strike call, had met with Labor Minister Raul Migone. The communiques said the CGT leaders had "resolved unanimously to cease immediately" the three-day walkout.

Backed Peron

CGT, mainstay of the toppled dictator Juan D. Peron, called the strike in an obvious attempt to discredit the provisional government headed by Maj. Gen. Pedro Aramburu while it was new and untried. The strike knocked out some key industries such as meat packing but "free laborers" in the transportation and communications industries defied the strike call.

Although technically the Peronista leaders or CGT were out of power by a government decree which outlawed the strike, the Aramburu regime apparently felt it would be better for the suspended officers themselves to call off the walkout which they had started. While speaking softly, the government continued to wield a very big stick. After jailing some 300 strike leaders — most of whom now have been released — it was reported cracking down on nationalist officers in the armed services and even on some of the clergy.

accused of preparing strike propaganda were arrested. They were identified as connected with nationalist groups, some of whose representatives were prominent under the provisional government of Maj. Gen. Eduardo Lonardi.

Lonardi and his associates ousted Peron in September. They were in turn deposed in a bloodless coup by Aramburu and his supporters Sunday on the grounds that the regime was still infiltrated with "totalitarian influences."

Total Farm Net Income To Be Down

WASHINGTON (AP) — Total farm net income this year may be 10 per cent below 1954 and some further decline is in prospect for 1956, the Agriculture Department said today.

This, the department said, contrasts with increasing income in the non-agricultural sector of the U. S. economy.

The department said that, with production expenses up, farm operators' net income for all of 1955 may total about $10,600,000,000 compared with $11,900,000,000 for 1954.

Farmers' cash receipts for 1955 are expected to be down about one billion dollars from the 30 billion plus received last year.

Hollywood Builds Dean Into Legend

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — This town, which specializes in legends, is building another around the late James Dean.

The 24-year-old actor died in a highway crash Sept. 30 yet he is as much in the public consciousness as he was when he lived. Perhaps more so. Men of genius who die young always excite the imagination.

Hollywood is agreed that Dean was a genius. Says Nick Ray, who directed him in one of his last pictures: "I think within two years Jim would have taken his place with Laurence Olivier, Gerard Philipe and Marlon Brando as one of the great actors of modern times."

Death Hits Hard
Dean's death hit Ray especially hard. A bond had been established between the director and Dean during the year they knew each other and worked together. They had planned to form their own company. Ray directed Dean in "Rebel Without a Cause." He told of making unusual preparations for the assignment.

"I had heard from everyone that Jim was difficult to work with," the director said. "So I decided to spend as much time with him before the picture as I could."

"I went East and found out how he lived back there, the kind of music he liked, all about him. I had him spend a lot of time with my son, who is 17. I wanted him to experience the relationship with a younger boy, as he had to enact in the picture."

"Vital, Gifted"
"I found that Jim wasn't difficult at all. He was a tremendously vital, gifted and earnest young man."

Although Dean is gone, his name is as prominent as ever. "Rebel" is doing big business, and he'll be seen in "Giant" next year. Already he's being boomed for an Oscar.

Traffic Hazard

CHICAGO (AP) — John Karr, 23, reported his car stolen and was promptly confronted with an impounded auto and 62 traffic tickets.

Police towed the stalled car away after they found the tickets under the windshield visor and in the glove compartment. Ranging from speeding to illegal parking, the ignored tickets dated back to 1950.

Karr said he had not heeded the tickets because "I didn't have the money."

Hal Boyle Scans His Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Leaves from a reporter's notebook:

It may interest several million American kids of all ages to know that Hopalong Cassidy's horse comes of age next week.

Topper, four-footed hero of more than 85 films, will be 21 on Tuesday. The children at the Graham School in Hastings-on-the-Hudson have arranged a party for him. The birthday cake will have a huge carrot in the center to make it more attractive to Topper.

The big horse, who has had white hair all his life, shows few signs of age. He still travels 30,000 miles a year on personal appearance tours, still puts in a full day's work whenever his boss, that guy in the black cowboy suit, needs him. But like most famous stars, Topper has a double who performs certain difficult stunts for him.

Life Still Grand
At 21, a mellowing age for a horse, life holds many attractions for Topper.

He isn't allowed to ride street cars, of course, but he is ineligible for the draft, he doesn't worry about who pays his income taxes, and he always knows where his next lump of sugar is coming from.

Topper knows about every trick except the trick of speech. Suppose he could talk, what would he say? An admirer of Topper's thinks the horse would look back over his shoulder at Hopalong and remark:

"If only I could get that guy off my back!"

A week ago I was eating at Toots Shor's and saw a tall thin man with a graying mustache dining alone at the next table.

I had a sudden urge to go over and tell him what a fine human being I thought he was and how much I admired his ability as a writer. I had met the man casually, and it would not have been out of place for me to obey my urge. But I didn't.

Died Next Day
The man was Robert Sherwood, the playwright. The next day he suffered a heart attack. Two days later he was dead.

It would have made no difference to Bob Sherwood if I had stepped over to him and put my thoughts into words. He was accustomed to receiving the praise he had earned.

But it makes a difference to me that I left my regard for him unspoken, for now I can never tell him and can only write it here, and am left with a regret.

Who says romance had died out of the world?

Recently during a cruise the chief steward of the Furness liner "Queen of Bermuda" knocked on the door of stateroom C-119. He asked the occupants, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Larson of New Rochelle, N. Y., if they would accept a bottle of champagne that evening with the compliments of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Vreeland of Wilmette, Ill.

The surprised couple asked the origin of the gift.

Steward Explains
The steward explained that 20 years before the Vreelands had sailed on the liner on their honeymoon. They had planned to spend their 20th anniversary the same way, but family illnesses had prevented them from carrying out their plan. So the Vreelands wrote the ship line, enclosed a sum of money, and asked that whoever occupied their old cabin—C-119—have a bottle of champagne on their 20th wedding anniversary.

The unusual request was carried out. The Larsons joined the ship's captain in toasting the Vreelands and then radiated their "happy anniversary" message. "I'm sorry they didn't get to make the trip themselves," said Larson. "They sound like people it would be fun to know."

YOUR Social Security? QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

The question most frequently asked by the farmer newly covered as a self-employed person is, "Am I compelled to pay a self-employment Social Security tax?"

The answer to that question is always "yes," provided that the self-employed person had net earnings of at least $400 from a trade or business and provided that his occupation is not one of the specifically excepted professions.

The next question the individual asks is, "How do I pay my security tax?"

The social security tax for the self-employed person is payable to the Director of Internal Revenue at the time the individual files his Federal income tax report. The tax on 1955 income is payable not later than April 15, 1956. The self-employment tax is three percent of the net income from the covered self-employment occupation.

A net income of less than $400 is not taxable. Neither is that part of the net income in excess of $4200 taxable.

Beginning this year farm operators and almost all self-employed professional people have social security coverage. The only professional people who are still without social security coverage are lawyers, physicians, dentists, osteopaths, veterinarians, chiropractors, naturopaths, and optometrists.

Clergymen may come under the social security program on a voluntary basis. If a clergyman elects to come under the program, he will be considered self-employed for social security purposes and will pay his own social security tax. To indicate that he wishes to be covered, the clergyman will file a certificate with the Director of Internal Revenue.

"How much can I earn and get all my Social Security payments?" is the most frequent question asked by persons of retirement age, according to G. W. Spencer, District Manager of the Rockford Social Security office. Many employers call with the same question, so advice can be given to their employees who work part time.

Anyone who is 72 years of age or over can receive benefits for all months regardless of how much is earned. For the worker who is under age 72, earnings for the entire year must be considered. If the earnings are $12,000 or less, payment can be made for all months, where earnings exceed $1200, one month's benefit must be withheld for each $80 or fraction of $80 over the $1200. For example, a man who earned $1281 in a year and worked all months would have 10 months' benefits payable. The first additional $80 would eliminate one payment and the $1 would eliminate the second. One who works in all months and earns over $2080 will receive no payments for the year. On the other hand, benefits are payable for all months in which no more than $80 is earned regardless of total yearly earnings.

"Old-age or survivor beneficiaries who earn $12000 a year or less or who became 72 years old before February of this year, need not concern themselves with the retirement test," Spencer said, "but for all others a complete understanding is very important." The best way to get that understanding, he suggested, is to visit your nearest Social Security District office. Those who cannot conveniently call in person, may request Fact Sheet No. 3 by mail.

Weekend TV Fare Has Promise

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Things to see on television this weekend (all times Central):

Saturday, 8:30 p.m. CBS-Ford Star Jubilee presents an hour and a half TV version of Herman Wouk's "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial," with most of the original cast of the Broadway hit. The TV version, edited by Charles Laughlin, is not a watered down version of that excellent drama.

Sunday, 3 p.m. NBC—Hallmark Hall of Fame presents George Bernard Shaw's "The Devil's Disciple," starring Maurice Evans, Ralph Bellamy, Teresa Wright, Dennis King. This is one of Shaw's "Plays for Puritans," which means it's a satire on conventional morality. The time is the American Revolution, the scene New England.

Sunday, 4 p.m. CBS—Omnibus presents Oliver Goldsmith's "She Stoops to Conquer," starring Michael Redgrave and Hermione Gimpold. If you want to see the 18th century roots of the plots and characterizations of many a modern "romantic comedy" here is your chance.

Sunday, 6:30 p.m. ABC—Famous Film Festival presents the British film, "The Lavender Hill Mob," starring Alec Guinness. Here is one of the best of British actors in one of the best of his many fine films. It's a hilarious comedy.

Come to think of it, this weekend might be called "The British influence on American television."

Offers Auto for Football Tickets

PARIS, Ky. (AP)—Anyone want a 1955 convertible for $7?

All you need are two 50-yard line box seats (price $7) for Saturday's Kentucky-Tennessee football game at Lexington. Gene Martin, Paris car salesman, advertising Thursday in the Paris Daily Enterprise said he would trade the car for the seats. The annual game usually is a sellout by the time the season opens.

City it was disclosed that despite Price's surprising confession, he probably could not be tried again because it would be double jeopardy.

The Pardon and Parole Board will meet Nov. 28-29 to consider the new evidence.

Oklahoma City police were bitter when they learned of Price's confession to the two priests and the warden, Roy Bergman, chief of police, charged the confession from Price was untrue and "contrived solely to save Farris from the electric chair."

From Texas, Farris' parents—one in jail and the other in prison—expressed joy at the last-minute reprieve for their son. In a Paris, Tex., jail on a burglary charge, Hubie Franklin Farris Sr. declared:

"Tell me there's not a good Lord."

Mother Happy
His mother Mrs. Margie Zeglen, serving a five-year term in Govee State Prison Farm, was almost speechless. She murmured, "I am very grateful and very happy."

Mrs. Zeglen is in prison for the slaying of her third husband. She killed her second husband too.

Farris will be 22 in two months. That's when his stay of execution ends.

Deep-Down Cold War Is Worry to Administration

Outward Peace Hides a World Full of Unrest

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and his Republicans can look out across the earth and, except for an occasional shot on the Israeli-Egyptian frontier, there is not a tank moving. There is peace, it seems.

But it is the kind of peace a fisherman sees when he looks across a lake on a frigid November. On the surface nothing stirs, but only because the cold has driven the fish down deeper to wage their endless struggle against one another.

If there is still no open war by next election day the Republicans will have a good talking point. But in the end the cold war, with the subtle struggle fought beneath the surface, may be just as deadly as a hot one.

U.S. in Trouble
The United States has plenty of trouble on its hands. How well it is overcome will be one of the major tests of the Eisenhower administration.

The Israeli-Egyptian struggle is only one part of the deadly struggle between the United States and Russia. The Egyptians are buying arms from the Communists, reportedly 80 million dollars' worth. The Israelis have asked the United States for arms. They had hardly made the request Wednesday when the Egyptian ambassador in Washington warned this country that if the Jews get American arms the United States loses the friendship of the Arab world.

The Republican politicians are over a barrel on this, just as the Democrats would be in their place. This country can't afford to lose the friendship of the Arab world with its oil supplies and its strategic value in a war with Russia.

At the same time the politicians know the large American Jewish voting population doesn't want to see the Jews of Israel outgunned or overrun by the Arabs.

Russia Makes Bid

Up till now the United States seems to have felt that the Arabs would stiff-arm the Communists. The Middle East has been a barrier to Russian expansion southward.

But the Russians now are making a bid to move in, if only at first in a kind of oblique way. They'd have to inch in anyway. They're promising not only arms but economic help, as in Saudi Arabia, Afghanistan and Syria.

The United States, to offset Russian promises of aid, may have to step up its own economic assistance in the Middle Eastern area. But this happens at a time when the Eisenhower administration is trying to cut expenses.

It wants to balance the budget. Doing that was one of its 1952 campaign promises. Only Thursday, Budget Director Rowland Hughes said it looks as if the budget can be balanced before the next election.

The United States and Russia couldn't agree on unifying Germany. Secretary of State Dulles may express optimism that Russia will consent. If he has any reason for thinking so, it hasn't been made public. It's nice to keep thinking the Russians will consent, but they've shown no signs of it.

What may happen is this, if the Russians can outmaneuver the United States, the Germans, now allied with the United States, may get fed up with the endless American-Russian disagreements on unifying Germany and try to make a deal with Russia to do it, even if it means breaking away from this country.

There is no shooting in Asia at the moment. That may not last long. The Red Chinese have been strangely quiet. But now that the "spirit of Geneva" has floated away, they may start banging away at Formosa.

Cook County Inmates End Hunger Strike

CHICAGO (AP)—The nine-day old hunger strike among some inmates of Cook County's jailhouse death row ended Thursday night.

Nine holdout convicts finally capitulated and took food to end a hunger strike begun Nov. 8 by Richard Carpenter, 26-year-old convicted cop-killer.

Carpenter kept up his food fast for a full week but some 20 "sympathizing" inmates joined him in the later stages. However, nine held out until Thursday night before taking their first meal.

Carpenter and the remainder of the inmates of death row are awaiting electric chair execution.

Sues Over Mouse

MIAMI, Okla. (AP)—Robert G. Smith of Miami has filed a $10,000 damage suit in District Court here against a soft drink bottling company for what his petition describes as "permanent mental and physical injury." He claimed he found a mouse in his bottled beverage.

Another Confesses Slaying, Doomed Convict Gets Stay

MCLESTER, Okla. (AP)—Just 10 steps and 7½ hours separated 21-year-old Hubie Franklin Farris Jr. from the electric chair. Then word was flashed to H. C. McLeod, warden of the Oklahoma State Penitentiary, that the postmidnight execution was off.

Gov. Raymond Gary, after a series of hurried telephone conversations, had granted Farris a 60-day stay of execution so the State Pardon and Parole Board could study new evidence disclosed Thursday.

Other Takes Blame
The 11th-hour reprieve was granted after 24-year-old Raymond Carroll Price, one of Farris' companions the night Oklahoma City Detective Bennie Cravatt was shot to death told two Catholic chaplains at the penitentiary he—and not Farris—had shot the detective.

Price is serving a life term for his connection in the shooting during a holdup of an Oklahoma City supermarket July 16, 1954. Price and James Skinner, 22, pleaded guilty and were given life sentences. Farris went to trial and was convicted of the murder of the detective. All three are from Dallas.

"I'm going to let Price say what he has to say," Farris declared after being told of the governor's action. "I know I didn't kill Cravatt. I don't think the people of Oklahoma want me to die. People believe in my innocence and all I have to do is convince the officials."

One Piggy Didn't

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (U)—One little piggy didn't get to market Thursday. This porker had the distinction of being the only 250-pound Poland China hog found dead at a main intersection. He probably was killed when he bounced out of a passing truck.

Skindiver Lands Big Shark After 14-Hour Battle

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (U)—A veteran skindiver encountered a 13-foot, 9-inch shark near the shore Thursday and after a 14-hour battle landed his quarry.

The basking shark—a misnomer in this case, it appears—weighed in at 1,400 pounds, the skindiver, Bob Lorenz, 36, of Venice, Calif., reported. Here's his tale:

Swimming underwater, Lorenz met the shark fired two darts, striking the creature fore and aft. The diver brought steel cables affixed to the darts to the surface and played the shark from a friend's boat.

The shark took the boat a mile and a half to sea before Lorenz was able to loop a tow line around him, halt his mad dash and bring him back to port.
